A Letter from Pastor Dana...

We are a people who get easily tangled up.

We get tangled up in our theology, politics, health, busyness, addictions, anxiety, expectations... and we spend a great deal of time worrying and trying to untangle our lives. We want to make sense out of them. We want to figure out the unanswered questions. We want to overcome what is holding us back from being what God calls us to be.

So we set goals... we work our steps... we do one day at a time, one hour at a time, one minute at a time hoping that the tangled mess we live will become something ordered and controlled.

It's a lot like the ball of Christmas lights we put away in a rush last January and now have to deal with the tangled assortment. We spend time untangling them light by light, checking to make sure every bulb lights up, so we can wrap it neatly around a tree or place orderly on the outside of our homes.

If only untangling our lives was that easy.

Maybe the tangled-ness of life is not so much something to fix. Instead, it is an opportunity. An opportunity to see in the chaos that there is love. In the mess, there is hope. In the waiting, there is promise. In failure, there is forgiveness. In the darkness, there is light.

This Advent as we prepare, wait, and hope let us be eager not to fix our lives – but instead open our hearts to the light of Christ who shows us just how beautiful they are.

May we be tangled in the light of Christ together!

In hopeful expectation,
Pastor Dana

From the President...

As we leave November, a month of giving thanks, and move into December where we begin the Advent season of waiting and anticipation, there is much to be thankful for in our community. Taking the time to reflect on what you are thankful for is a way of recognizing the blessings in our lives, despite all that may be overwhelming in our lives.

Immanuel hosted the first week of the ICRH Rotating Homeless Shelter. The shelter, in its 4th year, is already beginning to hit its capacity level. A huge thank-you to those who were able to volunteer, whether by spending time with guests, sitting watch through the night for the safety of the guests, getting the coffee ready in the morning, or bringing food for the guests, your support is greatly appreciated. Immanuel also hosted the annual Thanksgiving dinner, many thanks to those who donated time and food items to make this tradition a success.

As a community, we are also in a season of planning and accomplishing goals through our strategic plan. The Council recently received reports from all Ministries regarding tasks, wishes, and goals that were gathered from spring cottage meetings. All I can say is – Wow! Well done! The Ministries have done a wonderful job tackling the tasks asked of them and planning for the accomplishment of even more. I encourage you all to consider where your gifts, talents, and interests might be used within our community. Watch for more information on the strategic plan and all the Ministries are accomplishing and planning. If you feel called to any of the ministries, I encourage you to reach out to the Ministry chairs to become involved.

- Ministry to the Community and the World (Chair: Shirley Howard)
- Ministry to Each Other (Chair: Cindy Keller)
- Worship Ministry (Chair: Jan Eversole)
- Business Ministry (Chair: Chuck McCollom)

This month, I'd like to leave you with a charge as we begin advent – to find ways to be kind to others in random and planned ways. I recently saw a twist on the Advent Calendar – The Random Acts of Kindness advent calendar that suggests an act of kindness every day throughout Advent. Perhaps this is one way to live out what we've been called to be, "...the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things." (Galatians 5:22-23, NRSV).

Peace,
Meaghan McCollow
Council President

Your Input on Mission Trips is needed!

We are in need of your input again, as we continue to implement your suggestions from our cottage meetings. One of the ideas that surfaced repeatedly at the meetings was about mission trips. We have created a survey to help us better understand and focus on what you envision mission trips to be. It is a quick 10 question survey, please click the link and fill it out. We will have hard copies in the back of the Narthex for those who would prefer. The survey will be closed on December 12, 2016.

THE CALL TO CARE at The Adult Forum

“Bear one another’s burdens, and in this way fulfill the law of Christ.” Galatians 6:2

Have you ever felt inadequate about how to interact and express your care when friends, neighbors, or family members have suffered pain, loss, accident, or other misfortune (isn’t this just EVERYONE)? Stephen Ministers will offer some very practical and constructive ideas for things you can say and do (as well as NOT say and do!) to best express your compassion and care for someone who is suffering.

These sessions are not a book study, but a sharing of important principles addressed in the book, Don’t Sing Songs to a Heavy Heart by Dr. Kenneth Haugk, founder of Stephen Ministry.

We prayerfully invite you to join us in the fellowship hall between services on December 4th.

Stephen Ministers are well trained to provide emotional and spiritual support to anyone experiencing difficulties in their life.

If you or someone you know could benefit from CONFIDENTIAL one-to-one Christian care please speak to Pastor Dana or Stephen Leaders Gail Mitchell, Chris Schuster or Fred Schuster.

Community Input: Praises and Pinches

Thank you for taking the time to communicate ways we are doing well in our ministry at Immanuel and the areas that need attention. Your Mutual Ministry Team needs your feedback.
